DIVINE HEARTBEAT™

Divine Heartbeat Eternity™

The Love & Loyalty Pledge

We are all just one heartbeat away from Eternity

Wholehearted Surrender

Coming Out Of Babylon
Repentance, Renewal & Movement

Stewardship for this life. Loving loyalty for eternity.

MASTER COPY · REVISION 7 · 11-7-2026

Freely offered for personal reflection and spiritual care

VERACITY NOW 777™

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Dedication and the heart of this mission

First and foremost, I dedicate this work to GOD Almighty, my Heavenly Father—El Elohim, YHWH,

“I AM THAT I AM”—and to His Son, Jesus Christ the Messiah, Yahusha ha Mashiach, our Savior.

Father, every good thing in these pages begins with You. Jesus—Yahusha, You are The Way, The Truth and through Your life, sacrificial death, and resurrection, You opened the way of redemption and reconciliation with our Father. This is the greatest love story ever told—the greatest rescue mission of all time. May this work bear witness to Your love and lead hearts home to You.

In loving memory of my dad, Bill Fitzpatrick (William J. Fitzpatrick), whose love gave me a glimpse of our Heavenly Father’s love for His children. His tragic death opened my eyes to the urgent need to help others protect those they love—and prepare for the moment when this life meets eternity.

I see Romans 8:28 unfolding in this journey: God working all things together for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purpose. All means ALL—even the grief we could never have imagined carrying. The tragedy itself was not good, yet God has brought purpose from its pain.

In January 2014, my lifelong friend Rob Howe—“RAH, Big brother in Christ”—inscribed that very Scripture in the personalized Bible he sent me. Tucked inside was a check for $7,777.77. Rob and his wife, Maureen, helped my son and me begin again, after my dad’s tragic death, through their extraordinary generosity during a desperate season.

Now, holding that same Bible as we launch Veracity Now 777 and Divine Heartbeat, I understand more deeply how precious that gift was. The prayers, the friendship, the provision, and the Word placed in my hands have become part of the story I am only now beginning to tell.

Dad, your love lives on in the heart of this mission. One day I will see you again in Heaven.

By HIS grace. For HIS glory. With all my heart.

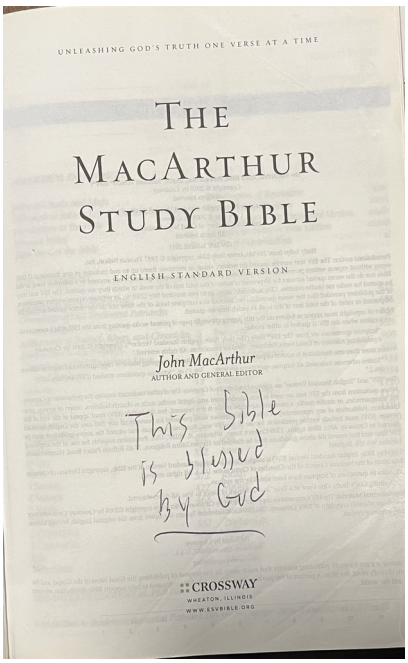

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

The Bible that helped us begin again

“Unleashing God’s Truth One Verse at a Time”

Printed wording from The MacArthur Study Bible, English Standard Version (Crossway)

When we received Rob and Maureen’s gift, my son JJ wrote on its title page: “This Bible is blessed by God.” Years later, during the Divine Heartbeat launch, I felt prompted to look for its translation. There it was: English Standard Version. And above the title, the words “Unleashing God’s Truth One Verse at a Time” caught my attention afresh.

JJ’s handwritten blessing in the Bible Rob and Maureen gave us in January 2014

I received that moment as a deeply personal confirmation: the same Bible that carried Romans 8:28 and the gift that helped us begin again was now drawing my attention back to Truth. It connected my dad’s memory, Rob and Maureen’s love, JJ’s blessing, and our renewed freedom to study Scripture across translations. For me, these threads came together in the calling behind Veracity Now 777 TRUTH Be Told and Divine Heartbeat—to seek His truth, receive His love, and walk in His Way.

Thank You, ABBA. May Your Truth lead us, and Your Love be seen through us.

Scripture and the names we use

We welcome the prayerful study of Scripture across Bible translations, including the Cepher. Quotations are identified where used. We honor our Heavenly Father, His Son, and the Holy Spirit through the names and titles believers use reverently across languages and traditions. No particular pronunciation or translation is required for this invitation. Our shared calling is faith, love, and wholehearted loyalty. See “Freedom in Christ and wholehearted surrender.”

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

My life became His

A personal testimony

At 27 years old, early in my walk as a new “born again Believer” in Jesus Christ, I made a bondservant pledge (very similar to this one) to The Most High God. I understood the seriousness of this pledge and that He would take it seriously. My life was forever changed. (That moment and that pledge has led to the Divine Heartbeat Eternity Love & Loyalty Pledge Mission.)

Soon thereafter, I was baptized in the Jordan River. These were deeply personal steps, recognized in the “unseen realm” and it showed up in this realm too. I can see clearly now that HIS promises are True no matter what life looks like in the moment. "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love Elohiym, to them who are the called according to his purpose." —All means ALL! — Romans 8:28—but we need to take this promise in the context of what comes before and after verse 28. ALL of Romans chapter 8 needs to be understood in context of the whole Story of Scripture. The Story of Creation, Rebellions, the Unseen Realm, a Divine Rescue / Redemption Mission—the Greatest Love Story ever told!

That bond-servant pledge reaches into every aspect of my life: the choices I make, the plans I release, the Truth I stand on, and the call I choose to answer every day. This commitment has been real in my life and God absolutely took me at my word. There isn’t one moment where I’ve regretted giving my life to HIM.

The call upon my heart now is to help others hear this invitation clearly: to know our Heavenly Father, Believe He Is Who He Says He Is, receive the gift of salvation through The Son, Jesus Christ the Messiah, and offer Him wholehearted loving loyalty for eternity.

Before you pledge

Be certain. Do not speak or sign this declaration unless you mean it wholeheartedly. Consider what you are offering: your allegiance, your choices, your direction, and the life entrusted to you. Ask The Father, ABBA Father, to search your heart and lead you. Pray fervently, read His Word, ask questions and seek understanding before responding or proceeding.

A bondservant pledge expresses a voluntary offering of oneself to our Heavenly Father through The Messiah in love and loyalty. Its seriousness calls us to faithful discipleship and dependence on grace. When we stumble, we return in repentance; our Father’s mercy and grace are central to this invitation. His Love is everlasting and so far beyond measure.

“This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that Elohiym is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the Truth: But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach his Son cleanses us from all sin.” 1 JOHN 1:5-7

*Personal testimony. This testimony is not a promise that another person’s experience will be identical.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Freedom in Christ and wholehearted surrender

A word from my heart

For years, we have watched disputes over the Father's and Son's names divide fellow believers. We, too, became intensely concerned with using the "right" names, yet did not embrace the condemnation coming from either side—where names and titles others hold sacred are demonized, and sincere believers are attacked for using them.

One night, a longtime broadcaster's denunciation of the Hebrew names deeply grieved me. I asked ABBA to show me His truth. Unknown to me, Patty Caven, thousands of miles away, was listening that same night and was similarly grieved. After reading Revelation the next morning, I called Ricky and Patty. Only then did we discover what we had experienced separately. Patty brought us back to Jesus' example: our calling is to walk as He walked. He revealed the Father and honored His name; He did not impose a particular pronunciation as a test of faith. We remembered God's words to Moses, "I AM THAT I AM" (Exodus 3:14). He knows whom we worship and sees the loving loyalty of hearts sincerely seeking to honor Him.

We received this shared awakening as ABBA's personal confirmation. Then another layer opened: there we were, gathered in His name! "For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20) His promise took on fresh meaning. The burden of getting a name "wrong" lifted. Thank You, ABBA—HalleluYAH!

Our position on names and Scripture

We honor The Most High and His Son through the names and titles believers use reverently: Father, Abba, God, Lord, Elohim, YHWH, Yahweh, Yahuah, and YAH; Jesus Christ, Yehoshua, Yeshua, and Yahusha. We celebrate sincere worship across languages and traditions without making a particular spelling or pronunciation a test of faith, salvation, or fellowship. God knows whom we seek and the hearts from which we pray.

Jesus taught us to pray to our Father and honor His name (Matthew 6:9). He also spoke of making the Father's name known (John 17:6, 26). We understand this as revealing and honoring the Father, not as a command that every believer use one pronunciation. Jesus prayed for His followers' unity (John 17:20–23). We reject condemnation over these differences and seek truth with humility and love.

We draw upon Bible translations broadly, including the Cepher, and encourage prayerful study and comparison. Quotations retain their identified source wording. No single translation is a condition of participating in this invitation. We seek the freedom Christ gives, expressed in faithful obedience and love (John 8:31–36; Galatians 5:1, 13).

A Bond Servant of Jesus

"Surrender means breaking the shell of my individual independence from God."

Oswald Chambers, My Utmost for His Highest, "A Bond Servant of Jesus," Modern Classic edition, November 3. Published online by Our Daily Bread Ministries.

Read the full devotional at utmost.org

Chambers calls us to surrender our independence and offer Christ wholehearted loyalty. This pledge expresses that freely chosen life of love and obedience, embraced with renewed freedom and joy.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Names and titles in Scripture

Scripture reveals God's character, authority, and saving work through many names and titles. These selected references support prayerful study; they are not an exhaustive list. Wording and transliteration vary among translations. Read each passage in context.

Our Heavenly Father and the God revealed in Scripture

God and Creator — Genesis 1:1; Acts 17:24–25. God Most High (El Elyon) — Genesis 14:18–22. God Almighty (El Shaddai) — Genesis 17:1. I AM THAT I AM — Exodus 3:14. The divine name YHWH — Exodus 3:15; many English Bibles represent it as LORD.

Father and Redeemer — Isaiah 63:16; 64:8. Our Father — Matthew 6:9. Abba, Father — Mark 14:36; Romans 8:15; Galatians 4:6. Jesus makes the Father's name known and prays for His people's unity — John 17:6, 11, 20–26.

Jesus Christ in the Gospels and apostolic writings

Jesus and Immanuel, meaning God with us — Matthew 1:21–23. The Word made flesh — John 1:1, 14. The Lamb of God — John 1:29. The Christ, the Son of the living God — Matthew 16:16. My Lord and my God — John 20:28. Jesus Christ is Lord — Philippians 2:9–11.

Jesus in the Book of Revelation

The First and the Last, the One who lives and was dead — Revelation 1:17–18. The Lion of the tribe of Judah and the Root of David — Revelation 5:5. The Lamb who was slain — Revelation 5:6, 12. Faithful and True — Revelation 19:11. The Word of God — Revelation 19:13. KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS — Revelation 19:16; see also 17:14. Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End — Revelation 22:12–13. The Root and Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star — Revelation 22:16.

The Angel of the LORD in the Old Testament

Hagar's encounter — Genesis 16:7–13. Abraham and Isaac — Genesis 22:11–18. Moses at the burning bush — Exodus 3:2–6. Gideon's encounter — Judges 6:11–24. Manoah and his wife — Judges 13:3–22.

Some Christians understand certain appearances of the Angel of the LORD as appearances of the Son before His incarnation. These passages do not explicitly name Jesus, and Christians differ in their interpretation. "Angel" means messenger; the title alone does not identify every angelic messenger as the Son. We offer these passages for reverent study, without making this interpretation a test of fellowship.

Freedom expressed through love

John 8:31–36; Galatians 5:1, 13; Ephesians 4:1–6; Romans 14:4, 13. These passages guide our commitment to truth, humility, freedom in Christ, and love toward fellow believers.

"If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." — John 8:36

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

When the last heartbeat comes

We prepare because life is precious. We seek wise care, name trusted advisors & advocates, and make our desires known because the body “temple” entrusted to us by our Heavenly Father deserves faithful stewardship.

Yet even the most careful preparation cannot make this earthly life permanent. Every breath and every heartbeat are gifts from The Most High Elohim (Genesis 2:7; Acts 17:25). There will come a time when this earthly body’s heartbeat stops. Beyond every medical decision stands a question of eternal importance: Where will my heart beat for eternity?

Divine Heartbeat Eternity brings that question into the light while we still have time to respond. It invites each person to hear the gospel, ask honest questions, and freely answer the call of GOD—our Heavenly Father, The Most High. He knows the hearts of those who seek Him.

The Father’s family

Scripture speaks of a Father who loves His children, a Savior who reconciles us to Him, and a Spirit who leads us into new life. His invitation is to belong to His family, receive His love, and answer with that same love & loyalty. We place our trust in Jesus Christ the Messiah and learn to live as those who belong to Him. HIS WAY. For His Glory.

Believing loyalty lived from the heart

The invitation calls for an undivided heart. The Messiah describes a narrow way that leads to eternal life and warns against the broad way that leads to destruction. Following Him can be difficult and costly. We yield our allegiance to Him and depend on His grace as we learn to walk His way.

Biblical faith is more than agreement with facts; even the demons believe and shudder (James 2:19). Faith is believing loyalty: trust in the Messiah expressed as allegiance. Israel was called to love God alone with an undivided heart (Deuteronomy 6:4–5), and Joshua called the people to choose whom they would serve (Joshua 24:15). Paul speaks of the “obedience of faith” (Romans 1:5). Grace comes first. Our freely chosen loyalty answers His invitation; it earns nothing (Ephesians 2:8–9).

Abraham was not without failings, but he trusted God’s promise, and that faith was counted as righteousness. “And he (Avram) believed in YAHUAH; and he counted it to him for righteousness.” Bere’shiyth (Genesis) 15:6, excerpt with explanatory glosses omitted. Paul points to this gift received through faith (Romans 4:3–5); James calls Abraham a friend of God whose faith was lived out (James 2:22–23). This is the invitation: trust Him, answer with love and loyalty, and move in His Way.

“Enter ye in at the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because narrow is the gate, and troublesome is the way, which leads to life, and few there be that find it”. Mattithyahu (Matthew) 7:13-14

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Faith confessed and lived from the heart

With our hearts we believe; with our mouths we confess our faith in Jesus Christ as Lord. Through His grace and the work of the Holy Spirit, that inward faith finds expression in our words, choices, and wholehearted loving loyalty.

Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.”

Romans 10:9–10

Guard your heart

“Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.”

Proverbs 4:23

The mouth speaks from the heart’s overflow

“A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.”

Luke 6:45. See also Matthew 12:34–35.

Our confession expresses our faith, and our lives increasingly bear its fruit. We receive and respond to God’s saving work through Christ. We ask the Holy Spirit to renew our hearts so that our words and actions reflect the love and loyalty we profess.

“For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he” (Proverbs 23:7, excerpt). In its immediate setting, a host offers food while inwardly begrudging its cost (Proverbs 23:6–8). This warns against a mismatch between outward words and inward intent. In this pledge, we seek a sincere heart whose confession agrees with the life we offer to God.

Scripture for reflection: Romans 10:9–13; Proverbs 4:20–27; Luke 6:43–46; Matthew 12:34–35; Proverbs 23:6–8; Ephesians 2:8–10.

.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

The gospel and the promise of life

Our need

We were made to know and love The Most High God and to belong to His family in loving, loyal relationship. Yet all of us have sinned and fall short of His holiness. Our need reaches beyond guilt: humanity is subject to death, the fear of death, and hostile spiritual powers. We cannot forgive our own sin or free ourselves from this captivity. We need His forgiveness, deliverance, and saving grace (Romans 3:23; Hebrews 2:14–15; Colossians 1:13–14).

What the Savior has done

Jesus Christ the Messiah, the Son of The Most High God, came in love, died for our sins, and rose from the dead. Through Him the Father delivers us from the power of darkness and brings us into His Son's Kingdom (Colossians 1:13–14). Through His death and resurrection, the Messiah breaks the devil's hold through death, frees those enslaved by its fear, and triumphs over hostile powers (Hebrews 2:14–15; Colossians 2:15). He reconciles us to the Father and gives eternal life. He calls us to repent, believe this good news, and follow Him in loving loyalty.

How we respond

We turn from sin toward our Heavenly Father, trust the Messiah as Savior and Lord, and place our lives in His hands. Salvation is His gift of grace, received through faith. Loving loyalty is our lived response: abiding in His word, obeying His leading, loving others, and returning to Him in repentance when we fall. This is our free-will choice to make. We answer His grace; we do not earn it (Ephesians 2:8–10).

Where assurance rests

Our standing rests in the faithfulness of the Messiah. Salvation is not earned by our goodness, or by signing this or any other pledge. The Holy Spirit calls us to repentance. It is our free will choice to answer that call. We have all fallen short. Jesus reminds us that God alone is good (Mark 10:18). Peter denied Jesus three times and was restored (John 21:15–19). We confess our sins and return to Him (1 John 1:7–9). Scripture warns against abandoning Him for another master (Romans 11:20–22; John 15:6). Idolatry gives another the loyalty that belongs to God: "Thou shalt have no other elohiym before me." Shemoth (Exodus) 20:3. Galatians 5:19–21 warns that the works of the flesh, including idolatry, oppose life in His Kingdom. We turn from these loyalties and return to Him. A signature or membership cannot establish anyone's standing before God.

Our hope is the resurrection of the body at the Messiah's return and the renewal of creation (1 Corinthians 15:42–55; Romans 8:23). Revelation shows the holy city coming down and God dwelling with His people (Revelation 21:2–3). The last heartbeat is not the last word: the God who gave the first one raises the dead. In a raised body, in a new creation, we will live with Him.

Scripture for reflection: Romans 3:23; 6:23; 1 Corinthians 15:3–4, 42–55; Mark 10:18; Ephesians 2:8–10, 19; John 21:15–19; 1 John 1:7–9; Romans 11:20–22; John 15:6; Exodus 20:3–5; Galatians 5:19–25; Romans 8:23; Revelation 21:1–4; 1 Peter 3:21–22. Colossians 1:13–14; 2:15; Hebrews 2:14–15.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

The roots of wholehearted surrender

A servant who stays out of love

Exodus 21:2–6 describes a Hebrew servant's release in the seventh year. If he chose to remain because he loved his master, his master brought him to the door or doorpost and pierced his ear with an awl, marking lifelong service. Deuteronomy 15:16–17 repeats the provision. The choice to remain was an expression of love and loyalty. This is the biblical background to the bondservant invitation here, not a request for any physical rite.

Paul calls himself a servant of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:1). The Greek word, doulos, means a slave or bondservant. Romans 6:16–22 asks whose service we choose: sin, or obedience to God. In this pledge, we freely offer our lives to the Messiah because we love Him and trust His goodness. The response belongs to the person making it; no one may extract it by pressure.

The clean heart only God can create

In Psalm 51:10, David asks God to create a clean heart. The Hebrew verb bara' is also used in Genesis 1:1 for God's creative action. David can confess his sin and seek mercy; the creation of a clean heart belongs to God.

Scripture holds our response and His work together. Deuteronomy 10:16 calls Israel to circumcise the heart—to turn from stubbornness. Deuteronomy 30:6 promises that God Himself will circumcise the heart so His people will love Him. Jeremiah 31:33 promises His law written within, and Ezekiel 36:26 promises a new heart and spirit.

Romans 2:28–29 brings the focus inward: circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not merely an outward mark. A signed pledge is also an outward mark. It can record a confession and commitment, but it cannot create the heart's renewal or establish anyone's standing before God. We ask His Holy Spirit to make the inward reality True.

His heavenly council and the Messiah's authority

Scripture depicts God enthroned among a heavenly assembly: the holy ones praise Him and stand in awe of Him (Psalm 89:5–7), and the host of heaven stands before His throne (1 Kings 22:19). This is the heavenly or divine council: created beings under His authority. The faithful heavenly servants worship and serve Him; hostile spiritual powers oppose His purposes. All angels, authorities, and powers are subject to the risen Messiah (1 Peter 3:22). Our allegiance belongs to The Most High God through His Son.

A response to understand before making

Read the gospel and the Divine Heartbeat Eternity™ pledge slowly. Ask questions. Pray. Listen for the Voice of Truth as God reveals it to you. Speak with a trusted advisor if so led. A wholehearted response must be your own. Take time to fully understand what you are doing before making this declaration. For anyone not yet baptized, this written declaration should lead toward baptism: preparation of the heart for a public pledge of allegiance to the risen Messiah Jesus Christ. The section on baptism explains that next step.

Scripture for reflection: Exodus 21:2–6; Deuteronomy 15:16–17; Romans 1:1; 6:16–22; Psalm 51:10; Genesis 1:1; Deuteronomy 10:16; 30:6; Jeremiah 31:33; Ezekiel 36:26; Romans 2:28–29. Psalm 89:5–7; 1 Kings 22:19; 1 Peter 3:22.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Coming out of Babylon

Repentance, Renewal & Movement

Revelation 18:4 calls the people of The Most High God to come out of Babylon rather than share in its sins, echoing Jeremiah 51:45. In this pledge, we apply that call to leaving sinful loyalties and worldly patterns that oppose Him and moving in His Way.

"And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4

Repentance — turn toward Him

Acknowledge where you have lost your way. Bring your sin into the light without excuses. Turn from pride, deception, bitterness, and the patterns of the flesh that compete with obedience and loving loyalty to Him. Ask for forgiveness and receive His mercy and grace.

Renewal — ask for a clean heart

Psalm 51 records David's cry for mercy and inward renewal after his sin. He confesses, but only God can create the clean heart he asks for. His prayer gives us words when we recognize that we too have lost our way:

Create in me a clean heart, O Elohiym; and renew a right ruach within me.

Tehilliym (Psalms) 51:10. "Ruach" means spirit.

Ask Him to renew your heart and mind, restore the joy of His salvation, and guide you by His Holy Spirit. He calls us to turn toward Him and promises the inward renewal only He can give (Deuteronomy 10:16; 30:6). Bring Him both the sin you confess and the habits you need His help to change.

Movement — walk in His way

Let repentance and renewal shape your next step. Abide in His Word. Seek wise fellowship. Make amends where you can. Leave the practices He calls you to leave. Take the steps of obedience He sets before you, choosing the narrow path that leads to life eternal.

This is a continuing way of life: return to Him, receive His renewal, and move in His direction. The following pledge makes that wholehearted surrender explicit.

Scripture for reflection: Revelation 18:4; Jeremiah 51:45; Psalm 51:1–17; Deuteronomy 10:16; 30:6; Romans 12:1–2; Galatians 5:16–25; Matthew 7:13–14; Luke 9:23; John 15:1–10. Babylon is not identified here with any contemporary institution or people.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

The Love & Loyalty Pledge

A wholehearted bondservant declaration to The Most High God

Heavenly Father—The Most High God—every breath and every heartbeat are gifts from You. I come honestly, acknowledging my sin and my need for Your mercy and grace. I repent and turn toward You.

I believe that Jesus Christ the Messiah, Your Son, died for my sins and rose again. I receive Him as my Savior and Lord. I trust His saving work and Your promise of eternal life.

Create in me a clean heart, O Elohiym; and renew a right ruach within me.

I do not want to do it "my way." I surrender ALL to YOU. I want to do it YOUR WAY—ALL-ways. Let there be no mistake about my allegiance: I am Yours. No compromise. No divided loyalty. By Your grace, I choose Your will above my own. I seek to honor You in ALL I do, to Love You with all that I am and to be called according to Your purpose.

I freely offer myself as Your bondservant. My life is Yours: my body, my gifts (time, talent, treasure), my relationships, my plans, and my future. I answer Your invitation to belong to Your family and give You my wholehearted love and loyalty.

Lead me out of Babylon—out of sin, worldly allegiance, and the ways of the flesh. Bring me into repentance, renewal, and movement in Your Way. Teach me to walk Your narrow path, abide in Your Word, and follow the Messiah Jesus Christ wherever He leads for all my days.

Fill me with and guide me by Your Holy Spirit. Help me to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with You. When I lose my way, call me back. Give me humility to repent, courage to make things right, and strength to obey and to stand strong in You.

I make this pledge freely and wholeheartedly. I understand that surrender reaches beyond this moment into the life I live. My assurance rests in Your grace and the faithfulness of my Savior. Help me live the loving loyalty I declare today. Lead me to live and publicly affirm the loving loyalty I declare today, including through baptism if I have not yet been baptized upon my own confession of faith.

When my last heartbeat in this earthly body comes, I entrust myself to You. I await the resurrection of the body at the Messiah's return and life with You in Your renewed creation. Until then, let my life bear witness that I belong to You. I am Yours—ALL in. In the name of Jesus Christ, the Messiah, and so it is my solemn vow and covenant pledge.

Signature _____ Date_____

Original pledge wording, incorporating Tehilliym (Psalms) 51:10. Further foundations: Romans 6:16–22; Romans 10:9–13; Romans 12:1–2; Ephesians 2:8–10; Luke 9:23; Micah 6:8; Revelation 18:4.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

My personal declaration

I have read or had this message read to me in a form I understand. I freely affirm this solemn vow and pledge as my own confession of faith and wholehearted surrender to The Most High God through Jesus Christ the Messiah. I understand the seriousness of what I am declaring. My signature records the wholehearted commitment I am making. This written declaration prepares and records my response; it does not replace baptism.

Full Name _____

Signature _____

Date / City / State _____

Optional companion or minister acknowledgment

I was present for this person's voluntary declaration or discussed it with them. My acknowledgment records that conversation; it does not certify salvation or theological approval of this template.

Name / Role _____

Signature / Date _____

My next step of repentance, renewal, or obedience

I would welcome support with prayer, Scripture study, baptism, fellowship, discipleship, reconciliation, or a particular step I wish to discuss.

My requested next step _____

My chosen "Trusted Advisor" _____

Purpose of this declaration

This is a voluntary personal faith declaration. It does not appoint a medical agent, authorize treatment, change resuscitation wishes, or alter a valid MPOA/Will to Live. An unsigned pledge does not invalidate medical documents. If I understand and personally affirm this declaration but cannot physically sign, someone may record it at my specific request and note the assistance given. No one may make a confession of faith on my behalf when I cannot personally affirm it.

DIVINE HEARTBEAT ETERNITY™

Baptism as a public pledge of allegiance

From a written declaration to baptism

For a person who has not yet been baptized upon a personal confession of faith, baptism is the named next step. This written pledge prepares the heart for a public confession of loving loyalty to the risen Messiah. It does not take baptism's place. If your baptism was in infancy or you have questions about it, speak with a trusted minister about a personal confession of faith and your next step.

Renewal immersion and mikvah

Some believers draw on the Jewish practice of mikvah—ritual immersion—as an outward expression of repentance and renewed consecration. Such a renewal immersion can mark a heartfelt return to God and His Way. It does not erase an earlier baptism or create inward cleansing by itself. Scripture calls us to return to Him; His Spirit renews the heart. Discuss this optional practice with a trusted minister, since fellowships understand baptism and renewal immersion differently.

In 1 Peter 3:21, Peter connects baptism with a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The next verse names the angels, authorities, and powers subject to the risen Messiah (1 Peter 3:22). Baptism publicly declares that we belong to this King.

Peter's language is understood here as a pledge of a good conscience toward God: allegiance confessed before witnesses. Baptism is not merely washing the body. Its meaning rests in the Messiah's resurrection and our response to Him (1 Peter 3:21–22).

My next step toward baptism

I will speak with a trusted minister or fellowship about understanding and preparing for baptism. I want my public confession to express the faith and loving loyalty I am freely declaring from my heart.

Minister or fellowship I will contact: _____

My next step / planned conversation: _____

Date, if arranged: _____

If I have already been baptized

This declaration can record renewed repentance and loving loyalty. If I desire a renewal immersion, or have questions about my earlier baptism, I will discuss them with a trusted minister. No additional immersion is required by this written pledge.

Baptism recollection / fellowship, if I wish to record it: _____

Scriptures for reflection: Matthew 28:18–20; Acts 2:38–41; Romans 6:3–4; 1 Peter 3:21–22; Psalm 51:10; Ezekiel 36:26. Renewal immersion is an optional devotional practice, not presented here as a command to repeat baptism.

ADDENDUM A · SPIRITUAL-CARE COMPANION

Spiritual care and my loving legacy

If I become seriously ill or approach death, I wish my care to include the following spiritual support, consistent with my current wishes, lawful access, and clinical needs. These requests do not change my medical treatment instructions as stipulated in my valid advance directive MPOA/Will to Live.

My preferred pastor/minister/trusted advisor _____

Telephone # _____

Alternate Contact _____

Loved ones I desire to be contacted _____

_____

_____

_____

My bedside preferences

Mark your requests known:

[ ] Prayer to our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ, using the names and titles I prefer. [ ] Scripture read gently in my preferred translation. [ ] Opportunity to speak with my chosen minister. [ ] Quiet presence of loved ones. [ ] Communion or other faith practice, if appropriate and requested. [ ] Soft worship music I choose. [ ] Quiet rather than music. [ ] Other: _____.

Preferred names / titles / Bible translation / Scriptures / songs / practices:

_____

_____

If I can communicate, ask me what I want at that time. If I cannot, honor my stated preferences with tenderness. Spiritual support is to accompany my specified (Advance Directive) medical care, including comfort care.

A message for those I love

What I most want you to remember about my faith, my love, and the life I have sought to live:

_____

_____

_____

_____

Signature for these personal preferences: _____ Date: _____

ADDENDUM B · MINISTRY INVITATION

By HIS Grace & For HIS Glory

This Divine Heartbeat Eternity™ gospel invitation, Love & Loyalty Pledge, and Spiritual-Care Companion Addendum are freely offered at no cost. No payment, membership, purchase, or signature is required to read, share, or respond to them. Take time to pray for The Holy Spirit to guide you in understanding the invitation and to respond wholeheartedly.

Grateful acknowledgments

With love and gratitude, I honor everyone whose prayers, counsel, encouragement, and practical or creative gifts have helped shape my faith walk and bring this invitation to others.

Special thanks to:

Pastor Dr. Dale Moreau, whose teaching and writing have inspired and informed my faith journey and this invitation. I am especially grateful for his careful theological review and editing of this document. His biblical scholarship and thoughtful guidance have strengthened its foundations, clarity, and expression. I warmly encourage readers to explore and subscribe to his Theological Voice on Substack at dalemoreau.substack.com, and to watch for his forthcoming book.

Pastor Dr. Preston Bailey, whose biblical counsel over the years has been a tremendous blessing in our lives. He has been a life preserver in a sea of troubled waters—sent by our Heavenly Father to help us through the roughest times and traumas of this journey. Dr. Bailey's book is highly recommended: Spiritual-Warfare-Defeating-Forces-Darkness

Ricky & Patty Caven, whom I believe ABBA divinely placed in our lives in 2014. Steadfast and true, they have prayed for me and my son through many challenges and spiritual attacks. Our prayerful conversation about the Father's and Son's names brought joyful confirmation of what we had been discerning separately. Their Strictly Performance Kingdom Ministry reflects that same heart for restoration, fellowship, and faithful service. Learn more about Strictly Performance Ministry (VeracityNow777.com – homepage – button link will take you there)

Rob Howe ("Robby" / RAH), my lifelong friend and big brother in Christ, and his wife, Maureen. His prayers and their extraordinary generosity helped carry my son and me through a desperate season and gave us a new beginning. Rob and Maureen, your love and kindness remain woven into this mission.

These acknowledgments recognize contributions to the faith invitation and do not imply endorsement of paid services.

Baptism

For anyone who Believes in Jesus Christ the Messiah and wishes to be adult baptized following a personal confession of faith, baptism is an important outward expression of that faith and loving loyalty.* Ask the ministry team about opportunities and arrangements. Baptism is voluntary and is not a condition of receiving medical preparedness or advocacy support. *(Acts 2:38; 1 Peter 3:21–22)

Music for the Journey

Divine Heartbeat carries this same invitation through music: receive His love, answer with loving loyalty, and live HIS Way for eternity. Both versions are now streaming on Spotify, with the official release across all platforms scheduled for 11-7-2026, to coincide with The Divine Heartbeat launch at TrutherCon.
DH lyrics written by JJB and produced by NolanK, the recordings are a musical companion to this ministry.

Dr. Allison Ashley Version

Listen on Spotify

NolanK Version

Listen on Spotify

VERACITY NOW 777™ | DIVINE HEARTBEAT IMPERATIVE™

PREVENTION · PREPARATION · PROTECTION

Your Body: The Temple of God Almighty

Scripture teaches that the believer's body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, bought with a price, and calls us to honor The Most High God in our bodies (1 Corinthians 6:19–20). Romans 12:1 calls us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice—an act of worship.

Faithful stewardship includes how we nourish and care for our bodies, the decisions we make about our health and medical care, and the protections we establish for times when we need someone beside us—advocating for/or speaking on our behalf.

Medical decisions can become matters of life and death—with little warning.

A sudden illness, injury, or hospitalization can leave you unable to explain your wishes, question a recommendation, or request another opinion. Even when you can speak for yourself, pain, exhaustion, and the complexity of the medical care system makes trusted advocacy essential. Your loved ones may face urgent decisions without clear instructions or recognized authority to help guide them.

The loss of my beloved Dad brought this reality painfully close. The many experiences I have witnessed since have deepened my resolve to help others prepare. This is why Divine Heartbeat is an Imperative: the time to establish your directives, designate your representative, and put protections in place is now—before they are needed.

Veracity Now 777™ DHI-PPP Portfolio Membership

Become a member. Put your directives into writing—and trusted support within reach.

The Prevention, Preparation & Protection Portfolio brings together carefully developed documents and advisory support to help members steward the life entrusted to them.

Prevention: Education, Therapeutic Lifestyle Change (TLC), First Line Therapy (FLT), Natural Health Collaborative Strategic Programs, and Trusted Advisory consultations that support natural health, longevity, informed choices, and proactive stewardship.

Preparation: A carefully developed, state-specific Medical Power of Attorney / Will to Live portfolio, with guidance for documenting your directives, choosing your representative, and organizing essential health information.

Protection: Patient Advocacy and Trusted Advisory services to help you navigate complex decisions, seek appropriate consultations, and advocate for your rights—and for your stated directives to be heard and honored.

Members may access services à la carte or through an ongoing engagement with their chosen Trusted Advisor or Advisors, including weekly or monthly sessions and emergency/crisis support within the agreed scope and availability. Services, qualifications, response arrangements, and fees will be explained before enrollment. Membership is designed to accommodate various levels of access and support.

Stewardship for this life. Loving loyalty for eternity.

Honor His Temple through Prevention, Preparation & Protection. Begin your DHI-PPP membership at www.veracitynow777.com.